

This Report is devoted to summarizing data regarding members and endorsers of the John Birch Society.

The first section concerns the number of JBS members.

The second section lists some of the more prominent members/endorsers of the Society

The third section is devoted to summarizing demographic information about JBS members.

The last section provides miscellaneous historical information about the JBS and Robert Welch.

MY RESEARCH: <https://sites.google.com/site/ernie124102/home>

Numerous historians, political scientists, and journalists have written articles or books or academic theses which purport to present fact-based references to the number of John Birch Society members. Most of these reports just repeat unreliable media estimates or absurd self-promoting public comments by JBS officials or, estimates appearing in publications by groups such as the Anti-Defamation League.

Much of the information which appears below is based upon confidential internal documentary evidence by senior JBS officials along with financial statements prepared by the Birch Society's CPA firm (Spark, Mann and Company) as well as annual financial statements which the JBS was required to submit to the Division of Charities/Attorney General of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

SECTION ONE = JBS MEMBERSHIP STATS

One of the most common JBS membership estimates was as follows:

"During the Cold War era, the right-wing John Birch Society had more than 100,000 dues-paying members"

By contrast, here is what Robert Welch reported in personal correspondence with JBS National Council members or in minutes of JBS National Council meetings:

1959

02/59 = first JBS recruitment meeting (to 100 people) at Oakley Country Club in Watertown, Massachusetts resulted in 10 chapters formed.

06/59 = 20 chapters

1960

01/60 = 82 chapters and 1400 local chapter members plus 300 "Home Chapter" members
[NOTE: By June 24, 1960, there had been a total of 25 two-day introductory recruitment meetings held around the country]

04/60 = 150 chapters and 2800 members

09/60 = 324 chapters and 5300 members

12/60 = In the 12/60 JBS Bulletin, Robert Welch stated that JBS membership was doubling every 4 months. If we apply that formula to the 5300 members reported by Welch in 09/60, then that would mean that circa January 1961, the JBS probably had about 10,600 members.

[NOTE: the 1960 JBS financial statement filed with the Commonwealth of Massachusetts stated that the JBS had received $198,719 in dues income. If we use an $18 average per member, that would calculate to about 11,039 members by the end of 12/60 -- which is exceptionally close to the 10,600 extrapolation mentioned above since men paid $24 yr and women paid $12 yr]

1962

In 1962 = the JBS reported on its annual financial statement that it received $296,326 in member dues income. That would calculate to about 16,462 members at an $18 average.

[NOTE: A letter by JBS National Council member Tom Anderson to Verne Kaub dated 11/62 declared that there had been a "70% growth of JBS" between January and November 1962.

1964

12/31/64 = The Birch Society's CPA firm (Spark, Mann and Company) reported that the JBS received $536,566.35 in member dues. Using the $18 average, that would calculate to about 29,809 members.

1965

A reporter asked Robert Welch about JBS membership numbers. Welch estimated the membership at "60,000 to 100,000, and if you take a figure halfway between, you're probably right." [Washington Post, 11/6/65, page B-2, Phil Casey: "Welch Denies Birch Society Far Right, Declares It Keeps the People Informed."].

NOTE: Welch's "half-way" reference would be consistent with the next item from Chicago Daily News but 80,000 cannot be supported by dues payment information submitted annually by the JBS to Massachusetts.

1965

In an interview with Robert S. Boyd of the Chicago Daily News, Welch claimed that the Birch Society had 80,000 members in 5000 chapters. [Robert Boyd: "$5 Million Push in Birch Publicity—What It Buys"; article reprinted in San Francisco Chronicle, 11/22/65, pages 1 and 8]

Note: the average JBS chapter was composed of 10 to 20 members. Also see next item which indicates that Welch was lying about JBS membership numbers.]

1966

The Birch Society's Eastern Regional Manager (Thomas J. Davis) told the Houston TX Chronicle that the JBS "has doubled its membership in the past two years to about 100,000..." [Houston TX Chronicle, 8/8/66, "Birch Society Membership Gains Claimed"; FBI-Houston 62-1521, serial #125]

1967

The 12/31/67 report made by the Birch Society's CPA firm (Spark, Mann and Company), stated that the JBS received $633,667.18 in member dues that year (the highest dues amount ever reported up to that time). Using an $18 average, that would calculate to about 35,204 members. Total income which the Society reported that year was $4,258,000.

The 35,204 estimate also seems to conform to the following information:

The former Controller of the JBS (Thomas J. Davis) told a newspaper reporter in 1967 "that the JBS had a membership of around 30,000 nationally, well below Robert Welch's estimates of between 65,000 and 80,000, with the bulk of the members concentrated in southern California, Texas and the southern gulf states." [Milwaukee WI Journal, 5/15/68, page C-12, "Do Birch Society Dropouts Point to Decline?" ]

1968

JBS magazine, American Opinion, has paid circulation of 33,600 (New York Times, 12/8/68, page 1 = "Birch Society, Age 10, Vows Red Rout"]

1968

In a 1968 JBS publication entitled "Why Support the John Birch Society"? Robert Welch stated "In fact, we have not yet climbed out of the 60,000-100,000 bracket which we have publicly acknowledged for about 2 years."

1971

The JBS CPA firm (Spark, Mann and Company) reported in its 12/31/71 financial statement that the JBS received $950,500.06 in member dues. Using an $18 average, that would calculate to about 52,805 JBS members (which I suspect may have been their high point -- during the time when so many Birchers were energized by the George Wallace campaign for President.)

BTW, in a 1971 JBS publication, ["It's Time to Come Home"] Robert Welch wrote that: "There are more than 50,000 people who joined the JBS at some time during the past 12 years who are no longer members...About 1000 did not prove to be desirable members. They were asked to resign and their names have been removed from our dormant list."

1973

In an August 1, 1974 memo to JBS members captioned "To Whom It May Concern", Robert Welch declared that 1973 dues payments totaled "about $700,000" and that amounted to about two-thirds of what total actual membership dues should have been if everyone had paid on time. That would mean that actual dues should have amounted to about $1,060,000. At an $18 average, that would calculate to about 58,888 JBS members.

1976

In June 1976, an Associated Press reporter (quoting a JBS official at JBS HQ in Belmont, MA) stated that the JBS claimed it had formed 500 new chapters within the previous two years for a total of 4,000 chapters. Since a typical chapter was comprised of 10 to 20 members, then if we use the half-way point (15 members per chapter average), we can deduce that the JBS was claiming to have almost 60,000 "dues-paying members".

1976

The Public Relations Director for the JBS (Jack McManus) told a Houston reporter that: "McManus said the Birch Society has 65,000 members in the nation and about 800 to 1000 in the Houston area." [6/21/76 Houston TX Chronicle, "Birchers Here Keep Low Profile", FBI-Houston 62-1521, serial #138].

1983-1985

Based upon financial statements of the JBS, the following are estimates of JBS membership based upon $18 average dues payment.

1983 = $673,304 in member dues would calculate to 34,405 members

1984 = $750,409 in member dues would calculate to 41,689 members

1985 = $622,333 in member dues would calculate to 34,574 members

1983

Charles Armour, the JBS District Governor for Western States, stated that the JBS had between 40,000 and 80,000 members. [United Press International report dated 3/14/83].

1985

Charles R. Armour (JBS Public Relations Director and Western District Governor) told the New York Times in a November 1985 interview that the JBS had 50,000 members in 3500 chapters. (NYT, 11-02-85, page 1, "Birchers See Rising Tide for Society"), However, member dues payments for 1985 ($622,333) do not support Armour's estimate of 50,000 members.]

1986

In June, a JBS spokesman told a New York Times reporter that the JBS had "several tens of thousands, not more than 50,000" members. [New York Times, 9/1/86, page 24, "John Birch Society Has Money Woes"]

When the JBS filed its 1986 Annual Report "Form PC" to the Division of Public Charities, Department of Attorney General—Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the JBS reported that it received $898,741 in member dues payments during 1986. At an $18 average, that would compute to about 49,930 members.

1991

Tom Eddlem, the Research Director of the JBS, stated that:

"Before last year, our membership was flat for three or four years, and before that it had been declining since about 1976. But we've seen a 50 percent to 60 percent increase in membership over the past six months compared to the same period last year." [United Press International report, 6/3/91, "Birch Society Claims Gulf War Bolstered Membership".]

1992

A 1992 Report written by Charles J. Kraft (link below) was based upon discarded JBS mailing lists when the JBS moved its HQ from Belmont MA to Appleton WI. Using data from the mailing list, Kraft reported that JBS membership was down to 21,284.

Based upon statistical sample of 905 members used by Kraft to analyze JBS membership, he concluded that men comprised 64% of membership and women comprised 36%.

2.2% of members consisted of joint (Mr. and Mrs.) members or family memberships.

There was a disproportionate incidence of physicians and dentists. In the general population, .25% are physicians vs. .88% in JBS sample.

1993-1997

Former JBS member Alan Stang posted on his website a confidential internal JBS document which showed the active membership as follows:

<https://archive.org/details/JohnBirchSocietyDuesPayingMembers19931997>

1993 = 13,806
1994 = 15,243
1995 = 15,048
1996 = 14,781
1997 = 14,839

LIFETIME MEMBERSHIPS

Many JBS members purchased "lifetime" memberships at $1000 each. During the month of September 1967, for example, the JBS received $24,360 for lifetime memberships. That same month, the JBS received $110,251.82 in contributions and $50,256.65 in member dues. The following month, the JBS received $39,900 in lifetime memberships and $130,189.34 in contributions.

Robert Welch comment from 12/67 JBS Bulletin:

"So—while we have had many instances where parents sent a check to make their child a Life Member the day the child was born, young Robert Buffington, who became a Life Member two months before he was born, holds the record so far."

SECTION TWO = PROMINENT JBS MEMBERS AND ENDORSERS

NOTE: It is not always known if someone whose name appeared on the JBS "Committee of Endorsers" OR whom, at some point, made public statements endorsing the JBS – might also have been an actual dues-paying member.

SECTION THREE = DEMOGRAPHIC INFO RE: JBS MEMBERSHIP

1960

According to Robert Welch:

"In the primary campaigns, the Republican primary of 1960, about two-thirds of our members were for Goldwater and about one-third were for Nixon for the nomination..." [Houston TX Post, 4/18/61, page 1, Saul Friedman: "Welch Calls Houston Stronghold of Birch Society"; FBI-Houston 62-1521, serial #71].

1961

In a May 1961 Robert Welch letter to attorney Neil McCarthy, Welch told McCarthy that approximately one-half of JBS membership was Catholic, one-half of the field staff was Catholic and two-thirds of the Home office employees (in Belmont MA) were Catholic.

1962

April 4, 1962 Robert Welch letter to Verne Kaub:

"Actually, and I am sorry to say, we do not have too many Jews in the JBS. This is partly because a smaller percentage of the Jewish people in America as a whole are true conservatives, than of the total population. But it is even more because of the greater pressures and dirtier pressures, which are put on them, against standing up for what they believe...But when you get into the Zionist picture, I repeat that you cannot think any less of the whole government of Israel or of the whole Zionist conspiracy than I do; except that I think its relative importance in the total importance in the whole picture has greatly decreased over the past three decades. Some day...I should be glad to exchange views with you...as to what has really taken place since around 1905 when I think the Zionist conspiracy -- and from then on for perhaps two decades --- was practically the father of the International Communist Conspiracy. Today I personally think that the relationship is almost exactly reversed, and that the child had now so far outgrown the parent in size and strength and importance that the parent is in a relatively minor position. But this does not make Golda Meir or Ben-Gurion or any of their extremist followers in this country any less culpable.."

1963

When the JBS opened its new Western Division HQ in San Marino, CA, JBS spokesperson H.R. (Bill) Richardson stated that 30% of JBS membership were registered as Democrats. [San Marino CA Tribune, 3/21/63, p8; "Birchers Open Regional Office For All to See"]

On July 15, 1963, the JBS reprinted the 1963 California Senate Factfinding Subcommittee Report on the JBS. it was then entitled "The California Report on the John Birch Society" It also included 20 pages of footnotes by Robert Welch which were intended to correct alleged errors or misunderstandings by the Subcommittee. The Introduction by Welch mentions that "And while nationally about half of the Birchers are Democrats, in California a preponderant percentage are active in the Republican Party."

1965

JBS founder and leader Robert Welch told a Washington Post reporter on 11/5/65 that "1/10 of 1% of JBS members were Negro" and Welch claimed that the JBS had 80,000-100,000 members which would mean about 80-100 black members. However, based upon JBS membership dues payments at that time, the JBS actually had only about 29,800 members in 1965 so if the percentage of black members mentioned by Welch was accurate, then the JBS only had about 30 black members.

1965

JBS Eastern Regional Director Thomas J. Davis told a North Carolina newspaper that the JBS was composed of:

- 50% men, 50% women
- About 50% each of Democrats and Republicans with a slight edge for GOP
- Mostly middle-class members but not too many in their 20's, more in their 30's and most between 40 and 60 years old, some older than that
- "as Mr. Welch says humorously, about 60 percent Protestant, 40 percent Catholic and one percent Jewish, which he admits adds up to 101 percent, but that means we have very few Jews—though the ones we have are fine people, good members...The Society also has a few Negro members" [8/19/65 Charlotte NC Observer article entitled "Birch Society Public Relations Man Comes Here to Seek Members"; FBI-Charlotte 100-9548, serial 142].

1966

In February, Jewish members of the JBS founded the Jewish Society of Americanists (JSA).

Honorary Chairman = Charles J. Bloch

Chairman = Joseph A. Siegel (Colorado Springs CO)

Chairman = Joseph Siegel (Colorado Springs CO)

Siegel owned J.A. Siegel and Associates. In December 1967, Siegel sent a letter to the House Committee on Un-American Activities regarding American Civil Liberties Union which observed that: "It is my considered opinion that the findings of an investigation by the HUAC may very well warrant placement of the ACLU on the Attorney General's subversive list." [FBI-HQ file 61-190, serial #1180, 12/26/67 Siegel letter to HUAC Chairman Edwin Willis with copies to J. Edgar Hoover and Atty General Nicholas Katzenbach.]

JSA Vice-Chairmen

Samuel L. Blumenfeld (Boston MA)

Dr. Samuel L. Blumenfeld. was a member of the JBS Speakers Bureau for several decades starting in the 1960s. He was a contributing editor of JBS magazines The Review of The News and American Opinion and The New American).

Vice-Chairman = Michael S. Kogan

Secretary = Mrs. Mildred Kaplan

National Advisory Council:

Lillian Abrahams
Morton Diamond
David Eisenberg (Tucson AZ = he later served on JBS National Council)
Dr. Barney Finkel
Frank Friedman
Georgia Gabor
Leonard and Marilyn Goldstein
Charles Hartman
Dr. Joseph Katz
Jack Ross
Loren Smith
Alan Stang

Doctors Committee:

Chairman = Barney Finkel
Vice-Chairman = Harlan Sindell
Philip Jacobson
Joseph Katz
Howard Moses
Seymour Weisman

2/18/66 article on JSA published by Jewish Telegraphic Agency

"Two Jews, who said they are members of the John Birch Society, announced here today that they are forming a new organization, called the Jewish Society of Americanists. The men are Samuel Blumenfeld an employee of the John Birch Society, in Boston; and Alan Stang, of New York, author of a book linking the civil rights movement with Communism.

They issued a statement of principles declaring that the society's aim will be 'to demonstrate to our fellow Americans and coreligionist that the Americanist principles, beliefs and aims of the John Birch Society are based on the very precepts of Judaism.'

At a news conference they said that, since an announcement two weeks ago in a Birch Society publication that the Jewish group would be formed, 'several hundred' Jews around the country have endorsed the move. Mr. Stang, declaring the title of the society a 'misnomer', said the group will admit not only non-Jews but also non-members of the John Birch Society.

Thomas J. Davis, public relations manager for Eastern United States of the John Birch Society, claimed there are 1,000 Jews in the USA among the society's 100,000 members. Listed among the officers of the new group are Michael S. Kogan, chairman; Mr. Blumenfeld, vice-chairman; and W.C. Solomon, executive secretary. None of them is known in Jewish public life."

1966

The Eastern Regional Manager for the JBS (Thomas Davis) "said the membership is about half-and-half Republican and Democratic with a slight edge of Republicans. He said its members were about 50 percent Protestants, 40 percent Catholics, with about 1000 Jewish members and a few Negroes." [Houston TX Chronicle, 8/8/66, "Birch Society Membership Gains Claimed", FBI-Houston 62-1521, serial #125].

1966

On February 15, 1966 Robert Welch sent a memo to Donald R. Gray, the Business Manager of the Birch Society's Wholesale Book Division, in reply to Gray's 2/14/66 memo to all the Managers of the Birch Society's American Opinion bookstores. In his memo, Gray advises JBS bookstores about the type of "anti-semitic" material which should not be sold in AO bookstores.

According to Gray's instructions, "...most of the books and pamphlets with an anti-Semitic flavor which we omit from our booklist are not of sufficient value in substance or scholarship to rise above the level of anti-Semitic invective or propaganda. Frankly, in our opinion, this applies to most of the books or pamphlets by Marilyn Allen, Richard Cotten, Myron Fagan, Kenneth Goff, Wickliffe Vennard, Eustace Mullins, Gerald K. Smith, Robert H. Williams and Benjamin Freedman."

In his memo, Robert Welch claims that in February 1966, the Birch Society had "several hundred" Jewish members. It is not clear how he could know this since JBS membership applications do not have a field for entry of religious heritage and the JBS did not allow scholars to survey JBS members in order to construct a factual summary of demographic data regarding their membership.

Welch referred to the recent publication by the Anti-Defamation League of its 112-page book entitled "Report on The John Birch Society 1966". Welch then presents a blame-the-victim type of argument: "...one purpose of the ADL in publishing this recent booklet is to try to make us and our members actually anti-Semitic. Whole booklet...shows that they are now out to try to destroy the John Birch Society at any cost, and practically by any means. And they would certainly consider driving us into anti-Semitic feelings as one way of doing so."

Thus, in the JBS scheme of things, when JBS members (by word or deed) revealed their anti-semitic sentiments, it was the fault of Jewish organizations like ADL for discovering and documenting those incidents. Furthermore, apparently Welch is acknowledging that JBS members would be receptive to believing or circulating anti-semitic arguments -- which is why he thinks that the ADL would expend energy and resources "to try to make us and our members actually anti-Semitic."

This is a constant contradictory theme in JBS argumentation:

One the one hand, the JBS proposes that it is not capable of grievous error or noxious prejudiced beliefs, statements, and conclusions. Only JBS opponents are capable of such profound moral and intellectual deficiencies. But, on the other hand, one booklet published by ADL containing criticisms of the JBS might easily convince Birchers to believe and disseminate anti-semitic statements. In short, in the JBS scheme of things, racial or religious bigotry does not pre-exist within deeply flawed human beings; instead, it originates in, and is provoked by, the very people whom are the targets and victims of such bigotry. Thus---Jews (or other minorities) incite and are to blame for whatever bigotry manifests itself.

1967

On 3/7/67, JBS Public Relations Director John Rousselot claimed that the the JBS had "about 400 Negro members"

1968

The December 1968 issue of the John Birch Society Bulletin contains the text of a speech by Robert Welch entitled "Looking Ahead". In his speech, Welch made the following observations re: the religious background of JBS membership. He also stated that these percentages also applied to "our staff, our speakers, and our authors".

60% = Protestant
40% = Catholic
01% = Jewish

Welch also declared that: "We have only a few hundred Negro members..."

An April 17, 1975 letter from a JBS member in Memphis TN to JBS HQ in Belmont MA lamented that:
"We sure could use some Negro anti-Communists here... 48% of Memphis' population is Negro... HELP!"
["John Birch Society Records" Collection at Brown University's John Hay Library Archives and Manuscripts, Call Number Ms.2013.003, box 26, folder 11].

1970

A JBS Bulletin reported: "We estimate that about forty percent of our total membership os Catholic. Many of our finest chapter leaders are Jewish. And we are proud of our small but growing number of Negro members who are working so hard...with us to show our fellow citizens, both white and colored, how the Negroes are being used today by the Communists to serve Communist purposes." [2/70 JBS Bulletin, pages 6-7 in section captioned "What is the John Birch Society?"].

1972

JBS National Council member, Francis Fenton, stated during a 3/31/72 speech in Jackson MS that:
JBS had 100,000 members of whom 40% are Catholic. He also reported that "five of the 28 members of the Society's controlling council are Catholics..."

SECTION FOUR = MISCELLANEOUS HISTORICAL INFORMATION RE: JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY / ROBERT WELCH

1956

In 1956, Welch used a $1000 contribution from Frank E. Masland (about $9456 in 2020 dollars) along with $4000 of Welch's own money (about $34,825 in 2020 dollars) to launch Welch's magazine entitled One Man's Opinion (OMO). The first issue (Volume 1, #1) was dated February 1956.

Welch converted Masland's $1000 into common share stock in Robert Welch, Inc., the publisher of OMO. Welch controlled 4000 shares of stock, i.e. 80% of shares. The intended audience was a small group of wealthy industrialists and business professionals. All articles in OMO were written by Welch and they were directed toward businessmen and thwarting communism through the free market.

1957

In June 1957, Welch announced an Editorial Advisory Committee for One Man's Opinion which consisted of businessmen, retired senior military officers, and other prominent Americans. Many of these individuals would later become members of the John Birch Society. Among the members of the Advisory Committee were: John U. Barr, Lawrence Bunker, Robert Dresser, Clarence Manion, and J.B. Matthews.

The July/August 1957 issue of Robert Welch's magazine announced a new Advisory Board for Welch's magazine (see names below):

John U. Barr (New Orleans industrialist)
K.G. Bentson (Union Rock and Minerals Corp)
James L. Coker (President, Sonoco Products)

Martin J. Condon III (Chairman, Conwood Corp)
William J. Grede (Grede Foundries, Inc.)
Clarence Manion (Dean, Notre Dame University Law School)
Frank E. Masland (President, C.H. Masland and Sons)
J. Howard Pew (President, Sun Oil Co.)
Robert W. Stoddard (President, Wyman-Gordon Co. and owner of several Massachusetts newspapers and radio stations)
Ernest W. Swigert (founder, Hyster Corp)
Ludwig von Mises (Austrian School economist and historian)

Even before the JBS was proposed as a new organization (in December 1958), Welch held recruitment meetings advocating for a new organization.

1958

In February 1958, OMO's name changed to American Opinion – and it included articles written by authors other than Robert Welch. The targeted audience also changed to include a wider audience of the general public. AO articles were more oriented toward fear of impending disaster, i.e. against a dark future and the need for a new organization to combat collectivist advances.

In December 1958, Welch invited 12 wealthy businessmen to join him in Indianapolis at the home of Miss Marguerite Dice to learn about the formation of the John Birch Society. Eleven accepted the invitation and 10 subsequently became founding members of the JBS.

1959

During his 2-day top-level recruitment meetings, Robert Welch used data from the unpublished version of The Politician to generate interest in, and support for, the JBS from prominent, wealthy individuals which was not discussed with the general membership. Welch used the substantive content of The Politician to instruct prospective high level members of the JBS about "the conspiracy" they faced and he proposed the JBS as what was required to thwart that conspiracy. At one such top-level meeting in 1959, Harry Bradley, co-founder of Allen-Bradley and Fred Looch, President of the corporation, agreed to contribute $25,000 to Welch (about $236,400 in 2020 dollars). Harvey Peters (tax attorney for Allen-Bradley) joined Harry and Fred to commit to pay for the cost of putting the top-level recruitment content on film. They contributed more than $35,000 (about $330,966 in 2020 dollars). [5/18/59 Robert Welch letter to William J. Grede, in Grede papers at Wisconsin Historical Society].

1959

Phyllis Schlafly and her husband (Fred) attended a JBS recruitment meeting in Chicago and then became members. In later years, Phyllis never was willing to acknowledge her membership---not even to her two biographers (Donald Critchlow and Carol Felsenthal). In the February 1960 issue of the JBS Bulletin, Robert Welch described Phyllis as "a very loyal member of the John Birch Society". See 1964 entry for additional information concerning her resignation from the JBS.

1962

A JBS Finance Committee was organized and headed by William J. Grede to seek financial support from the business community.

In a 09/28/62 letter to Samuel L. Blumenfeld, Robert Welch stated that: "Our total sale of the Blue Book to date, at two dollars each, has been about two hundred thousand copies. Since it has cost us, in the format we use, about sixty-to-seventy cents per copy, we have a net profit of about one dollar per copy after allowing for shipping and handling."

1963

One month after the release of the June 1963 Report on the JBS by the California Senate Factfinding Subcommittee on Un-American Activities, Robert Welch published a July 15, 1963 reprint of the Report which contained an additional 14 pages of notes to correct what Welch considered some relatively minor errors or incorrect assertions in the Subcommittee Report. In his introductory remarks captioned "About This Report", Welch declared that:

"The following few pages of footnotes are not added in any spirit of quarreling with the Committee or of complaining about its Report. We think that Senator Hugh Burns, his fellow Committee members, and their staff all did a very praiseworthy job of objective investigation. As we think that they arrived at general conclusions about the Society which were basically sound and entirely fair."

1963

Reed Benson, Utah State Coordinator for the JBS, stated in an Phoenix, Arizona speech that "The sale of U.S. wheat to Russia would be an act of treason because it gives aid and comfort to the enemy".

Reed did not mention that during the Eisenhower Administration, his father (Ezra Taft Benson, then Secretary of Agriculture) approved sale of commodities including hybrid corn to Iron Curtain countries. [Arizona Republic, 10/19/63, page 21 "Red Sale Treason, Bircher Declares" – also in FBI-Phoenix file 62-795].

1964

According to a May 1964 memo from Thomas N. Hill to all JBS Major Coordinators and Coordinators of the JBS, in 1964 there were 213 American Opinion Libraries and 12 American Opinion Bookmobiles selling JBS publications and the JBS supplied them with over $20,000 of merchandise each week (about $189,123 in 2020 dollars).

1964

Phyllis Schlafly resigned her membership in the John Birch Society.

In August, JBS founder/leader Robert Welch wrote a lengthy letter to the wife of JBS National Council member Thomas J. Anderson (Mrs. Carol Anderson) to address what Welch described as "rumblings about your discontent over our discouragement of any massive exploitation of Phyllis Schlafly's A CHOICE NOT AN ECHO by the American Opinion Library in Nashville" during the 1964 Presidential campaign.

Welch then explained, in confidence, that the action he and the JBS took "was specifically at the request of Phyllis Schlafly herself. Phyllis has been a good friend of mine for a long time" and "...I thought her book was excellent, and was going to be very helpful in the campaign. But she, and obviously some of the Goldwater higher-ups with whom she was in close association, were extremely fearful...that the usefulness and effectiveness of the book...could be nullified by the enemy if they could tie it in any way to The John Birch Society; and that any such development might actually damage rather than help the total Goldwater cause. Confidentially, Phyllis even resigned from the Society when she brought the book out, in order to avoid this possibility." [08/19/64 letter by Robert Welch to Mrs. Tom Anderson, 2220 Woodmond Blvd., Nashville TN, pages 2-3].

1964

Robert Welch stated that the Birch Society “made an outright purchase of half a million copies of J. Evetts Haley’s book, A TEXAN LOOKS AT LYNDON” and the JBS was “emphatically negotiating for the purchase of another half million copies, to follow right behind the first lot.” [08/19/64 Robert Welch letter to Mrs. Carol Anderson, Nashville TN, page 2].

1965

In an interview published by the Chicago Daily News, Welch stated that the JBS planned to spend between $5 million to $6 million that year. He also said the JBS had:

- 250 paid employees
- 5 Regional Offices and an East Coast (Belmont MA) and West Coast (San Marino CA) headquarters
- 360 bookstores (typically named American Opinion Libraries or Bookstores)
- 600 book titles offered in their American Opinion Bookstores Wholesale Catalog
- 4 publishing companies [Western Islands Publishing, Belmont Publishing Company, Robert Welch Inc., and American Opinion Libraries]
- $11 million annual printing bill
- 40-page catalog of JBS-sponsored speakers (via American Opinion Speakers Bureau)

1967

Richard N. Ober, New England Major Coordinator for the JBS stated during a speech in Arizona that the JBS planned to expand the current 75 full-time JBS Area Coordinators by hiring 360 more JBS Coordinators so that there would be one for each of the 435 Congressional Districts and those new Coordinators could expand JBS membership from 100,000 members to 400,000 members.

Ober also claimed that each active JBS member exerted influence over the voting habits of “100 persons” and he expected the JBS to “command a 40-million voting bloc”. Ober also declared that the JBS had the “worst public relations image in history” because “this has been deliberately created by the Communist conspiracy which controls the nation’s communications media for this purpose.” [Arizona Republic, 4/20/67, page 10, “John Birch Society Planning Addition of 360 Coordinators”].

1967

Welch claimed that “JBS educational efforts over the years, backed up by individual Society members, played an important part in the election of Republican Governor Reagan in California last year.” [Los Angeles Times, 1/12/67, page I-3, “New Drive Against Warren Considered by Birch Society”; also appears in FBI-Los Angeles file 100-59001, serial #1136].

1969

Robert Welch stated that “Mayor Sam Yorty’s victory of Tom Bradley was the most important defeat the Communists have suffered in this country in nearly 50 years.” [Los Angeles Times, 7/8/69, page II-1—quoting Welch comments in July 1969 JBS Bulletin]. Welch also said that JBS members “deserve much of the credit for Yorty’s victory....”

1971

JBS member (and paid speaker) David E. Gumaer gave speech at Los Angeles City College on 1/14/71, during which he declared “that the United States will experience a Communist revolution within two years.” [FBI-Los Angeles 100-59001, #1233, which is 2/1/71 informant report re Gumaer speech].

1974

JBS speaker, Charles E. Smith, stated that; “We’re going to take Nixon and Kissinger, Sen. George McGovern, Sen. J.W. Fulbright – politicians of that sort – and we’re going to try them for treason, and they’ll be hanged.” [Los Angeles Times, 6/25/74, page I-3, “Birch Society Tightly Knit But Limited Appeal.”].

1978

Gary Allen, one of the Birch Society’s most prolific authors, announced that he, his wife and their four children were planning to leave their home in Rossmoor CA and move to New Hampshire “to wait for the national economic disaster he’s sure is coming...We have gone past the point of no return” said Allen “who complains that the federal government has put the country on a disastrous inflationary course by printing and spending too much money.” Allen declared that he was “naïve enough” to believe that if Americans were given “the facts, they would do something about it” referring to “the conspiracy”. But, now, “he said he believes that majority are too lazy to save themselves” and he now believes that “Frankly, I think people here are going to get what they they deserve”. Allen told his interviewer that he spent 12 years to “investigating America’s power elite. By his count he has written seven books and more than 135 articles for American Opinion...” (the JBS monthly magazine). Allen stated that his book, None Dare Call It Conspiracy sold 5 million copies “of which the John Birch Society purchased about 2 million”. [Leslie Berkman, “Birch Society: No Parades, No Hoopla, But Still Alive”, Los Angles Times, 2/5/78, page OC-B-1]

1982

The JBS delivered petitions to Congress and to President Reagan and Vice President Bush containing 3 million signatures calling upon the United States to get out of the United Nations. Since 1975, the JBS claims to have sent Congress anti-UN petitions containing 11 million signatures

1983

After suffering a stroke, Welch resigned as CEO of the JBS. He was 83 years old. He became Chairman Emeritus. Thomas N. Hill became JBS President and Cong. Lawrence McDonald became Chairman of the JBS. [UPI report, dated 3/14/83]

JBS Public Relations Director John F. McManus told the Harvard University Crimson that President Ronald Reagan was not a “real conservative”. He also is quoted as saying “that the Society has very few Jewish or Black members”

1986

In annual financial report (“Form PC” to Division of Charities, Massachusetts Attorney General Office, the JBS reported $3,803,246 in liabilities and $63,647 in assets. In 1984, the JBS reported $9.1 million in liabilities and $784,516 in assets. It also reported $2,601,250 in contributions and a 12/31/86 deficit of $7,759,854 and and a 1/1/86 deficit of $9,353,503 [Also see financial report by JBS CPA firm, (John G. Sabbey, Acton MA).

1986

In June, Charles R. Armour became President of the JBS. Armour stated that the circulation of the JBS magazine (The New American) dropped from 50,000 to 30,000 and it has changed from weekly to bi-weekly. JBS liabilities of $8 million in 1981 rose to $9.1 million in 1984. Assets over the same period ranged from $63,547 in 1981 to $26,142 in 1984. [Seattle Times, 8/25/86, page A-4, “Birch Society $9 million in Debt; Undermined by Internal Feuding”].

1988

In December, Charles R. Armour retired as CEO of the JBS, after 2 years as its leader. Previously, he had been the JBS District Governor for Western States.

1989

In January, G. Allen Bubolz became CEO of the JBS. He served from 1989 to 1991.

In the March issue of the JBS Bulletin, the JBS announced that it was consolidating its Belmont MA and San Marino CA headquarters offices and moving them to Appleton WI in the summer. The newly consolidated office would have 27 paid staff and a $1 million payroll.

1991

G. Vance Smith became CEO of the JBS and he served until 2005. In 1972 Vance gave up his business career to work full time for the Society as a Field Coordinator. Later, he became the Society's National Director of Field Activities. In June 1991, Vance was named the Chief Executive Officer of JBS. John F. McManus served as President from 1991-2016. He formerly was National Public Relations Director for the Society.

2005

Art Thompson and John F. McManus took over leadership of the JBS in 2005 after a bitter internal power struggle which replaced the previous CEO (G. Vance Smith). Some JBS members described the takeover as a coup and membership plummeted in the aftermath of the internal controversy. In October 2005, Vance, along with several other senior JBS officials such as Tom Gow, gave up their leadership positions. Vance then directed his efforts to Robert Welch University.

Much of the internal controversy regarding the change in JBS leadership was summarized on a now-defunct website by JBS member, Don Fotheringham which may be seen here:

<http://web.archive.org/web/20160304025421/http://donfoth.com/index.html>

2005

The JBS website identified the JBS members around the country who were organizers for JBS speaking events, as follows:

ZONE 1 (OH, NJ, MA, CT, NY): Dr. Paul Leithart, David Giordano

ZONE 2 (VA, GA, SC, FL): Mr. Joe Kee, Richard Snider, Ken Porter, Jim McLendon

ZONE 3 (MN, IA, KS, MO, IN, MI): Frank Annerino, Cliff Mathias, Ken Gregory, Dennis Felix

ZONE 4 (TX, OK): Mrs. Doris Butcher, Joseph Raple, Clark Curry

ZONE 5 (ID, UT, MT, CO): Mrs. Katherine Frazier, Corbet Miskin, W. Dean Lindsay, Steve Hanna, Robert Wiswell

ZONE 6 (CA, AZ): Mrs Jan Frelick, Don Snyder, Mrs. Carolyn Guillot, Tom Tanner, Jim Pinkerman

ZONE 7 (OR, WA): Dannon Mancuso, Mrs. Sally Crino,

OTHER JBS MEMBERS/OFFICIALS AS OF 11/2005

Ken Schneider

Tina Oehler (TX)

2007

In 2007, with the support of several former members of the JBS Executive Committee of the JBS National Council, Vance organized and became President of Freedom First Society.

Former JBS President (and JBS National Public Relations Director) John F. McManus authored "The John Birch Society: Its History Recounted By Someone Who Was There", [Wakefield, Massachusetts: Overview Productions, 2018, 472 pages]. However, much of McManus's "history" is fictional.

2020

Bill Hahn succeeded Art Thompson as CEO of the John Birch Society. Thompson became a JBS National Council member. Hahn was previously the Public Relations Director of the JBS.

INTERESTING HISTORICAL FACTOID

The following JBS-related item appears in 2001 book by Christopher Andrew entitled: The Sword and the Shield: The Mitrokhin Archive and the Secret History of the KGB:

"Like the CIA, the FBI was inevitably a major target of KGB active measures. Until the death of J. Edgar Hoover in 1972, many of these measures were personally directed against the Bureau's long-serving, aging and irascible Director. Service A employed three simple and sometimes crude techniques. The first was to portray Hoover as in league with extremists such as the ultra-right-wing John Birch Society, whose founder regarded even the former Republican President, Dwight D. Eisenhower, as a 'dedicated conscious agent of the Communist conspiracy'. Service A had acquired both some of the Society's stationery and samples of its leaders' signatures from its California headquarters to assist it in its forgeries. In November 1965 it fabricated a letter of good wishes from Hoover to the leader of the John Birch Society, reminding him that the FBI funds put at his disposal would enable the Society to open several more branches." [Christopher Andrew and Vasili Mitrokhin, "The Sword and the Shield: The Mitrokhin Archive and the Secret History of the KGB", Basic Books, 2001, pages 234-235]

Footnote 72 on page 617 documents this assertion by identifying the ultimate source being: Notes from Mitrokhin Papers: volume 6, ch 14, part 1

Volume 6 = Contemporary manuscript notes in Russian copied from FCD files (First Main Directorate or First Chief Directorate of the Committee for State Security), 1972-1974

JBS INCOME

From annual JBS financial reports submitted to Commonwealth of Massachusetts:

1959 income (first year of operation) = $129,844

1960 income = $198,719

1961 income = $595,000

1962 income = $826,100

1963 income = $1.6 million

1964 income = $3.2 million

1965 income = $4.0 million

1967 income = $4.2 million

JBS AMERICAN OPINION SPEAKERS BUREAU

American Opinion Speakers Bureau (Brookfield MA) provided JBS-affiliated speakers to groups around the country. Douglas C. Morse was the General Manager of the Speakers Bureau and he was succeeded in 1965 by Michael D. McGagin. From May 1963 to October 22, 1965, Donald Mackey was the Western States Regional Manager in San Marino CA for the Speakers Bureau.

1965 Speakers Bureau included:

Thomas J. Anderson, Julia C. Brown, G. Edward Griffin, A.G. Heinsohn Jr., Dr. George J. Hess, Maj. Gen. Thomas B. Lane, John N. Noble, Jose Norman, Philippa Schuyler, Dr. Hans Sennholz, W. Cleon Skousen, Willis E. Stone, Duane Thorin, Harold Lord Varney, Henry C. Wolfe

JBS National Public Relations Director, Reed Benson, sent a letter to FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover in November 1967 which enclosed a copy of the Birch Society's "American Opinion Speakers Bureau National Roster" which consisted of the following persons:

Gary Allen, Tom Anderson, Austin J. App, Reed Benson, Hilaire DuBerrier, Samuel Blumenfeld, Julia Brown, Eric D. Butler, Richard F. Carter, Sheriff James G. Clark, Maj. Pedro Diaz Lanz, Francis E. Fenton, Susan Fitch, William Flax, Robert H. Goldsborough, Ruth Gordienko, G. Edward Griffin, Ferrell Griswold, A.G. Heinsohn Jr., Dr. George J. Hess, Lola Belle Holmes, Dr. Susan Huck, Ingeborg Jarski, Don E. Johnson, Hubert W. Kregeloh, Clarence Manion, Lt. Col. Gordon "Jack" Mohr, Jose Norman, John Rees, E. Merrill Root, John. Schmitz, George S. Schuyler, Hans F. Sennholz, W. Cleon Skousen, Alvin D. Smith, Alan Stang, Ethan Stangland, Scott Stanley Jr., Willis E. Stone, Duane Thorin, Harold Lord Varney, Dr. William E. Warner, Gen. Clyde J. Watts, Natalie E. White.
